The Hibbards base ball team of Montpelier had an off day yesterday and in consequence suffered an ignominious defeat at the hands of the Italian Athletic club on the Berlin street grounds in the afternoon. The frazzle went six innings when the poor Hibbards gave up in disgust and quit the game. The score then stood 24 to 5 in favor of the Italians. The visitors tried out three pitchers in their belabored efforts to get three men out in an inning. Ladd started in first and in the first inning eight runs were made by the Italians and in the fourth inning with Carlo in the box eight more were chased across the plate. Carlo lasted one more inning and then McGrath was put into the box for the last inning. Scampini started in to pitch for the Italians, but after the slaughter of the Hibbards in the first inning he decided to save himself for the games to-day and to-morrow and Calagni, the first baseman, was substituted.
